

Call for Proposals: Social Services Relief Fund – Food Security Stream

The Kenora District Services Board invites proposals for the Food Security Stream of its Social Services Relief Fund (SSRF).

The SSRF Food Security Stream Fund objectives are to help prevent the lack of access to healthy, nutritious food for individuals and families in the Kenora District due to the impacts of the COVID-19 Pandemic. Fill out the following submission criteria and required proposal information.

Priority will be given to organizations who submit a proposal application that demonstrates a partnership with other community agencies who provide similar services.
